

First Ray of Will and power

Ray Master: Chohan El Morya Overlighted by Archangel Michael and Faith, and Elohim Hercules and Amazonia.

Qualities: Will-to-good, individuality, vitality, singleness of purpose and clear vision. Color: Red. chakra Center: Crown

This ray can be indicative of needing to step more into your power, and/or having power and control issues with your family, partner, friends, colleagues and so on. It may also be indicative of the “spiritual warrior” archetype that feels misunderstood or isolated on his or her journey. Sometimes it is to understand that as a leader, and creating new frontiers, can be perceived as lonely, but the outcome to expressing your Truth and standing in your power far outweighs any perceived sacrifices. It is also to be open to receiving, as many Spiritual warrior archetypes have an energy field with a big “no entry” sign written all over their aura. The issues of trust and surrender are quite clear here. The flip side to this is the person who still plays the victim role, and does not have clear boundaries, attracting those that take advantage, consciously or otherwise. Learn to say “No”. This is being selfless not selfish. Bring your energies in, and do what works for you. You will never be able to please everyone anyway. The key here would be discernment and standing in your power. Visualize the sword of Holy Truth, brought through by Archangel Michael, deep within your heart center. When you need to express your Truth, and stand in your power, visualize yourself holding the sword of Holy Truth with a strong right arm across the front of your body, bringing a deeper level of discernment and empowerment. Then surround yourself in the vibrant red flame of the first ray of Will and Power. The sword of Holy Truth can also be used effectively in decoding, cutting old ties energetically from within the energy field of the person or people you wish to disconnect from or shift your current relationship.

Second Ray of Love-Wisdom

Ray Master: Chohan Kuthumi, Overlighted by Archangel Jophiel and Constance, and Elohim Apollo and Lumina.

Qualities: Strength, patience and endurance, intuition, clear intelligence, radiance and faithfulness. Color: Blue. Chakra Center: Heart

This ray is very much about embracing the Divine Feminine aspect to your nature, and focusing on Self-nurturing and Self-Love. It is to find this Love from within, and not necessarily through a relationship of Love often bound by projections and expectations. For Light Workers, it is often about finding the balance between Love and Power, and taking your Service work to a new level. To express your Love energetically to others, visualize a beautiful golden infinity symbol extending from your heart to the heart of the person you are connecting with, and wanting to share your Truth and Love. Then surround this person in the blue flame of Love and compassion. This energy technique is particularly useful when you do not feel strong enough to stand in your power, with integrity and Love, or you are feeling angry and unloving in a situation of confrontation.

Third ray of Divine Intelligence

Ray Master: Chohan Serapis Bey Overlighted by Archangel Chamuel and Charity, and Elohim Heros and Amora.

Qualities: Mental illumination, capacity for concentration on philosophical studies, clear-mindedness, sincerity of purpose, and patience. Color: Yellow. Chakra Center: Throat

This ray is often indicative that you are ready to start on a more focused Spiritual direction, joining a study group, meditation group and so on, taking yourself on a journey to Self often through Higher Mind teachings. If you are at this stage, many of your teachings would be on the inner planes, and you may find yourself as a student within the Great White Lodge in the etheric of Sirius or other similar Ashrams, such as Shamballa, the Spiritual headquarters to Earth. The influence of this ray may also find you starting a new direction in your Life or creating new energy systems. As many people on this third ray are mentally gifted, the key to integrating this ray is to find the way to your heart, and further to this, recognize and embrace the Divine Equality of all Life. You may read thousands of books, but it is the experience of these teachings that will take you into the Higher Mind of Mother/Father God. Learn to walk your talk!

Fourth Ray of Harmony through Conflict

It is also about letting go of old relationships and people that are no longer suited to you energetically. In many instances, it shows a person who is stagnating with their creative energies. You have aspects of seeing your creative gifts, and being the wild women/wild man energy, but can't maintain this in your reality.

The key is to work on your judgments and false beliefs, to trust in yourself and also to look at your issues of self worth and self-esteem. It is also possible that you may experience problems in relationships of Love particular, or use your sexual energy in an inappropriate manner. The positive side to this ray shows a person who is ready to utilize their creative energies, and take a big leap of faith into the Abyss, and the jewels that are yours for the claiming. It is further about appreciating your Self and others.

Ray Master: Chohan Sananda (Jesus the Christ), Overlighted by Archangels Uriel and Aurora, and Elohim Peace and Aloha.

Qualities: Devotion, idealism, reverence, tenderness, intuition and loyalty. Color: Indigo. Chakra Center: Solar Plexus.

This ray will generally show a person of deep devotion and ideals to their chosen Spiritual path. The key here is discernment, and the realization that there is never just one path, and having the flexibility to integrate further Spiritual concepts, and become One with all Life. It may also show that you need to be clearer in your Spiritual journey, and set up a daily Spiritual practice that enhances your Soul purpose or Sacred Contract. Further to this, there may be an imbalance in the emotional body, requiring emotional detachment, and a stepping back from an overzealous nature. You may also be a little bit obsessive in your Spiritual practice, and need to relax and enjoy the company of those at different levels of Spiritual growth. The integration of the sixth ray shows a person who is able to inspire others to their Service work, and has a good balance between the Divine Masculine and Divine Feminine principles.

Seventh Ray of Ceremonial Magic

Ray Master: Chohan St. Germain and Lady Portia, Overlighted by Archangels Zadkiel and Amethyst, and Elohim Arcturus and Victoria.

You are working with your dualities, and realizing that you are a Light Worker, in Service in Love to all Life. You may also need to create a more focused Spiritual routine in your everyday Life, and step into a deeper level of trust and surrender with the Divine. If you are a Light Worker setting up organizations, rituals, ceremonies and so on, trust in the Divine Unfolding of this Plan, knowing that you will be provided for on all levels, and be truly supported in your Light work (particularly around the issue of money). You will always have enough. Once you have dedicated your Life to Service, you will always be Divinely provided for. The key here is one of integrity, and letting go of the ego consciousness. Let go and let God! For every step forward you take, your buddies of the Light take ten steps towards you!

Eighth Ray of Transcendence

This ray is primarily about a deeper expression of your Service work, and perhaps also letting go of old ties that no longer support you. Though this may initially feel like your entire support structure is falling away, it is only so that new structures can be brought into manifestation. This ray further assists in cleansing and clearing at a cellular level of old false beliefs and judgments, and similar to the seventh ray, allows for deep emotional healing from Cosmic wounds that occurred in ancient Egypt and Atlantis. As this transmutation is occurring rapidly for most people at this time, surrounding yourself in the magnificent luminescent seafoam green and violet “sacred flame of transcendence” will greatly assist in recalibrating the energy bodies and bringing a renewed sense of balance and equilibrium. This ray further assists you in building your etheric electronic body of Light, and is related to this sacred geometry of the octahedron. If you are familiar with this shape, you can visualize yourself stepping into three superimposed seafoam green and violet octahedrons.

The balance here is between Power, Love and Wisdom, and thus you may go through initiations at this level related to the dualities of these qualities, so you may transcend any negative beliefs needed to be cleared from within the body, and energy field, as well as truly come into acceptance of Self. You have a sense of emotional detachment and Higher Mind Wisdom and Knowingness, and the ability to touch others deeply through your Truth. You are able to take on more responsibly in your Service role at this time. The tenth ray of Divinity may also show a person who needs to experience and express their Truth, without compromising on their Spiritual values.

Old stresses have been released, and new structures are rebirthed through Higher Mind teachings and the Love-Wisdom of Mother/Father God, represented in this ray through Quan Yin. Thus we see a person, who has the ability to not only unveil but to integrate the secrets of hidden knowledge and bring them into form through the Divine Mother archetype of the Golden Age of Light. This person may also have the gift of healing, and work within this arena. This ray may also show a person who needs to release the stresses from within the body, and work with this beautiful pink-orange flame for cellular regeneration and to rebirth the body to a new level of vitality and good health. If you have good ideas but are unable to manifest them in form, this ray will assist in bringing increased discernment, abundance, strength, wisdom, insight and organizational skills. This ray further assists in connecting you to the realms of Illumined Truth through sincerity in action and the utterance of one's Spiritual reality.

This ray is usually indicative of taking on greater responsibilities in your Service role. It shows the ability to bring people and projects together, and to manifest in form all that you need to anchor the collective frequencies of Love-Wisdom and One Unity Consciousness. As you are shifting from Planetary Christ Consciousness into Solar Christ Consciousness, an expansion of Cosmic Light takes place within the physical body that activates the dormant DNA relating to Solar Christ Consciousness and the Solar axial lines. You have a deeper understanding to your multidimensional nature, as you open to the memories of your fourth dimensional Selves. If this ray is chosen for the mental, emotional or physical body, we are seeing a person who has experienced many of the Temple teachings in ancient Egypt and Atlantis. Cellular expansion continues, and ascension symptoms continue. This ray may also simply point out that a person needs more direct sunlight for the Spiritual expansion of Light.

Choosing this ray may simply be the experience of re-union with the Pleiadian Emissaries of Light, and the need to feel more Love and joy in your Life, or more insight, all qualities brought through by the Pleiadian Emissaries of Light. It may also be that you are at the point of awakening to your fifth dimensional Selves, which occurs through the activation of the dormant DNA related to this fifth dimensional level, either etherically or physically. The activation of the Interstellar axial lines gives you the experience of the sacred geometries, sound and tonal frequencies related to this dimension, and the ability to lift yourself to this level of Cosmic Consciousness awareness. If this ray is chosen for the mental, emotional or physical body, you are generally seeing a person who has experienced many of the Temple teachings in ancient Egypt and Atlantis, and depending on the positioning of the other rays in the reading, may be experiencing the healing of Cosmic wounds, or a deeper level of Service work and increased responsibility. This ray is perceived as feminine in nature, and very useful in working with issues of abundance and manifestation. Surrounding yourself in this beautiful fifth dimensional Interstellar ascension flame allows a deeper experience of Self Love and Self-acceptance. Usually at this stage, there would be a deeper activation of the kundalini and tantric channels, and for high level initiates, a deeper degree of Tantric Immortality may be experienced. Beyond the veils, the etheric immortal chromosomes within the body are being activated.

The nature of one's Light work from this level, to the eighth dimensional level, in particular, has a focus on Spiritual and scientific principles, working with Metatronic Consciousness and the super-electron. Through the energy of this ray, Divine energy transmissions powered through the electron pour into your physical energy body, bringing integrated concepts that you may potentially manifest on your physical Earth plane. There is a high level of manifestation and materialization possible through the influence of this ray, and a great ray to work under from a mathematical and musical perspective. The harmonics of the body and energy field expand to this ray frequency through the sound of high pitched noises occurring through the ears, or visual representations of sacred geometry, as well as a deeper expansion of the threefold Flame of Power, Love and Wisdom through the heart center. As the Sirian Archangelic League of the Light are Keepers of sacred geometry, a most wonderful ray to experience, and a magical ray to connect to, to bring about manifestation through the unlimited potential of Self.

So many multi-realities present themselves, as this fourth Cosmic ray has a focus on cellular expansion through the Overlighting of the Andromedan Intergalactic Beings of the Light, and the super-electron. Orbs of Light stream through from the related inter-dimensional portals, prior to being activated as Cosmic rays, and the downloads through the seventh dimensional portal and the sixteenth ray of Intergalactic Service, allows one to experience one of the most powerful Light activations possible. These pockets of information are generally downloaded very rapidly. This brings with it the experience of Self-Mastery, and the sense of merging into oneness. At this point, there is complete surrender in all aspects of your Self, and you lose the sense of individuation to experience simultaneity.

Seventeenth Ray of Intergalactic Service

Overlighted by: The Brotherhood of the Light, the Order of Melchizedek, and the Intergalactic Council of Twelve.

What is generally experienced is a sense of your full multidimensional nature, this Now moment, merging into Oneness with all Life. Further to this, a complete regeneration of the body potentially occurs. For through the activating and actualization of the Universal Cosmic axialtonal lines, physical regeneration is possible. As the appropriate Universal geometries of color and sound are brought into the body, dis-eases such as cancer, arthritis, blindness and many other illnesses may be cured. work, unconditional Love, infinite expansiveness and great wisdom, Multi-Universal Service, and the experience of becoming the Cosmic Heart of Mother/Father God. Color: Diamond. Cosmic Chakra Center: Ninth dimensional portal, 24 feet above crown chakra.

This ray may be indicative of a person with exceptional healing powers, and having an energy field that is soothing and gentle to others. This ray, although bringing into manifest that which was previously Unmanifest, does so primarily through energetic vibrations, and thus sound and healing, and color therapies, as well as a host of wonderful vibrational and healing tools would fall under the influence of this ray. Usually, this person is vibrant and in good health, or alternatively may need the healing, protective and nurturing energy of this expansive Cosmic ray to correct the molecular structure of the body and energy field.
